

K-Love is a wonderful part of my life. My family and I listen to it almost everyday. K-Love is as they say a positive and encouraging piece of our community. I would be lost without it and would hate to see it taken away because of some new LPFM broadcaster. K-love is an established station and loved by the community.